A Blessing

May God bless you with a restless discomfort about easy answers, half-truths, and superficial relationships, so that you may seek truth boldly and love deep within your heart.

May God bless you with holy anger at injustice, oppression, racism, and exploitation of people, so that you may tirelessly work for racial justice, freedom, and peace among all people.

May God bless you with the gift of tears to shed for those who suffer from pain, rejection, starvation, or the loss of all that they cherish, so that you may reach out your hand to comfort them and help turn their pain into hope.

May God bless you with enough foolishness to believe that you really can make a difference in this world, so that you are able, with God's grace, to do what others claim cannot be done.

Anti-Racism and White Privilege Resources - from Cynthia Cochran-Carney

Here are some of the pieces I have read and watched this week that I have found helpful and challenging. I know I have much work to do and we as a church and community need to listen as we work together on changing structural racism.

Trevor Noah connects recent events and systemic racism in a profound way

Letter from African-American woman about her husband. He is often seen as a threat because he is black. How are we shifting our own biases and assumptions? Are we willing to speak up when we see racist profiling?
